

Gossip Among Local Politicians in Both Camps

William McAdoo, former Police Commissioner, once Assistant Secretary of the Navy and a Civil Service reformer, will probably be named tonight by the Democrats of the Seventeenth district for Congress. The Republican nominee is Representative William S. Bennett, a close friend of President Roosevelt and Gov. Hughes.

M'ANUS ILL, MISSES COUNTY CONVENTION.

Senator Thomas J. McManus has been ill at home for the past week, but expects to be out ready for campaign work next Monday.

He did not attend the Tammany County Convention, the first he has missed in several years.

ADLER HOPES TO GET SCALP OF GOLDFEATHER.

Republican Leader Adler, of the Eighth district, says that the Sullivan are dreaming when they predict a Chandler sweep of the lower east side. "Our nominee for Assembly, Joseph P. Sogal, will win," says Adler, "and I expect Congressman Goldfeather will want the plank. It's a Grand Old Party year and you can't be out."

LEADER WRIGHT WONT RUN FOR THE SENATE.

William J. Wright was offered the Tammany nomination for the State Senate in the Nineteenth district, but declined owing to business reasons. "Anyway, a big job is booked for him next year," says the Cayuga Club member.

Fall Headgear Note—Larry Mulligan wore a green hat during the Tammany County Convention.

Charles J. Shearn told a Buffalo audience that "Chambers is a political turncoat, likely to come out as a Republican to set into the United States Senate, or a Socialist, to get a Presidential nomination."

Thomas L. Hagen, the first Presidential candidate to visit Goldfield, Nev., was greeted by a large crowd, mostly miners. To-day he speaks at Reno; tomorrow at San Francisco.

Los Angeles claims the oldest registered voter in the country—a negro, one hundred and eighteen years old.

Mr. Taft hurried from Chicago to Cincinnati to-day to discover that if he does not register to-day he cannot vote.

Republican leaders consider New York, Indiana and Ohio so doubtful they have decided Mr. Taft must concentrate his fight there and cut his plan of campaign.

In the South to a day each in Kentucky and Tennessee and one speech in Maryland. A week will be spent in New York.

Among those who greeted John W. Kern at Roanoke, Va., was his only sister, Mrs. Belle Engle, who lives at the old homestead back in the Virginia mountains, and had come to town with a load of "hardon sass." He will spend part of to-day at the old home.

While no charge of coercion has been made, many Pennsylvania steel companies are putting Taft buttons in pay envelopes.

The plurality of Joseph M. Brown, Democrat, for Governor of Georgia, is estimated to be 50,000. Yancey Carter, Independence candidate, has only 20,000 votes. The constitutional amendment disfranchising ignorant negro voters seems to have carried.

A SUCCESSFUL SPECIALIST

The success which has attended Dr. Anderson's treatment of Throat and Lung Diseases, is a result of his scientific method of diagnosis and treatment.

Dr. Anderson's treatment does not consist of any special apparatus or of any of the usual medical examinations. No time is wasted at this start, and the patient receives the proper treatment suited to his individual case, and for the exact disease he is suffering from.

Dr. Anderson's special attention and treatment of Throat, Lung and Chest Diseases, is a result of his scientific method of diagnosis and treatment. He has cured many cases of Throat and Lung Diseases, and has cured many cases of Chest Diseases.

If You Pay More Than 98c for a Late Book You're Losing Money and at the Same Time Encouraging a Trust's Efforts to Dominate Retail Merchandising.

WE sell late Books at 98c, against the $1.08 or more asked in ALL other stores. That other stores MIGHT sell such Books as cheaply as we do if they could transact business on a margin of profit as slender as our cash system demands is MANIFEST. We have made it possible for them, after seven years' legal fight, to throw off the Book Trust yoke and sell goods as we sell them—AS CHEAPLY AS WE CHOOSE.

That they elect to continue wearing the yoke is significant. We invite you to compare the Macy price—98c—with the price asked in any other store for any publication here listed:—

The Testing of Diana Mallory.—Ward.
The Lesson of Love.—Burroughs.
The Little Brown Jug of Kildare.—Nicholson.
The Man from Broadway.—McCutcheon.
The Flying Line.—Chambers.
Mr. Crow's Career.—Churchill.
A Grand Army Man.—O'Higgins.
Anne of Green Gables.—Montgomery.
The Lure of the Mask.—MacGrath.
Cy Whittaker's Place.—Lincoln.

Sale of Women's $45 Suits, $34.74

ANOTHER group embracing enough Suits to warrant advertising in detail. Values as good, and often better, are to be picked out here daily from "Not Advertised" lots of Suits. Small lots are always placarded with "Not Advertised" signs. These at $34.74 are exact copies of a very late Directoire model. They are fashioned of heavy two-toned diagonal chevrons, in various colorings; jackets made with large collars and pockets and finished with ties and buttons; new gored flare skirts. These are models particularly suitable for small figures.

At $24.74—Women's Strictly Tailored Long Coat Suits, of chevrons, unfinished worsteds and fancy fabrics, in black and colors.

Hunting Suits: Women's and Misses'

Visitors to New York

will find this Great Macy Store one of the sights of the Metropolis. It is the largest retail store under one roof in America and sells more goods for cash than any other store in America. Its stocks embrace the choicest products of home and foreign markets. Apart from the splendid displays of merchandise in the eighty odd departments of this great store, visitors will find much of interest in the way of store conveniences—Parlors, Waiting Rooms, Pub. Telephone and one of the largest Restaurants in the world. Store hours—8 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Oriental Rugs and Carpets.

A Reduction Sale in Many Respects the Most Noteworthy We Ever Announced.

THE Rugs and Carpets concerned are from our own regular stocks—an assurance of their worthiness. The reductions are from our own regular prices—and they are reductions decisive enough to insure patrons of this Macy Rug Store some of the biggest prizes they have ever known.

Men's Overcoats and Raincoats

More Autumn Models Regularly Up to $34.75 $19.75

THOUGH the season has been anything but favorable for the Fall Overcoat business, there is no standstill for the business in face of measures as radical as this. We might carry the garments over and "spring them" as spring models, but there is no plank in the Macy Store platform making such a thing permissible.

In this collection of garments at $19.75 will be found an excellent assortment of light-weight Overcoats and Cravenette Raincoats made of plain black and fancy worsteds and unfinished fabrics; the majority silk lined—some to edge, others to facing.

In Regular Stocks We Show: MEN'S WINTER OVERCOATS, from $14.75 to $32.75. MEN'S FALL AND WINTER WEIGHT SUITS, new styles, fabrics and colorings, from $14.75 to $34.75. YOUNG MEN'S FALL AND WINTER SUITS AND OVERCOATS, from $9.94 to $24.75. MEN'S NEW STYLE WAISTCOATS, newest shades of velvets and marcelled fabrics, from $2.50 to $6.50.

For Men---Patent-Collar Coats For Motoring or Street Wear

HERE is a clever idea in coat-building—one sure to meet with a ready reception because of the double service such Coats render. All the novelty of the garment is in the collar. It may be worn in the regulation overcoat style, or arranged to button high, in military collar fashion, affording storm coat protection. We show these Coats in both single and double-breasted styles, fashioned of heavy black kersey cloth or brown or olive frieze. All are warmly lined and have sleeves with wind shields.

Single-breasted, $26.74. Double-breasted, $28.74.

In this Motoring Goods Room we show complete lines of Men's Fur Motoring Coats, ranging in price from $12.74 to $169.00. Fur Motoring Robes range from $19.74 to $98.75.

Men's Footwear, 600 Pairs of Our Regular $4.96 Shoes, $3.89

HERE is an excursion rate to $6.00 Footwear Land—a method by which we plan to convince men that the grade of Shoes they pay $6.00 for elsewhere may always be matched here for $4.96.

So we mark down six hundred pairs—from $4.96 to $3.89—for six hundred convictions.

Included are Button and Lace Shoes, in patent leather, blucher and regulation Lace Shoes, in black calfskin, and Lace Shoes in vicci kidskin; two laces, straight and swing; all have hand welted soles with neat extension edges.
